

Success Story of Bangkok Post Foundation

Miss. Varin U-youngkeat

Miss Varin U-youngkeat was born on February 19, 1978, she lived with her parents in Pitsanulok Province with poor condition. When Mr. Anusorn Taweessin, one of the former committee of Bangkok Publishing Co.,Ltd found her, she was able to pass the entrance university examination to Naresuan University in faculty of medicine.

Mr. Anusorn Taweessin decided to financially support her education personally but for only one year due to his serious sickness. Since then, Bangkok Post Foundation has consecutively support on her education in the field.

Now she is one of specialist in brain surgery working in her home town at Buddhachinaraj Hospital assumed doctoral PhD. Degree position at her 36 years of age.

She is the one who make volunteers of BPF most proud.

Miss. Varin U-youngkeat (middle) with her mother