Charity Purpose:
Phud Hong Leper foundation mainly focuses on taking care lepers in their colony without any discrimination as well as providing vocational training to the lepers and their children in order to obtain skills needed to help them through life and not to be a burden to society located in Nakorn Sri Thammarat province, southern part of Thailand. Presently, there are 170 leprosy patients in the colony with the government subsidy Baht 70.- per patient per day for leaving allowance. Among these patients, 20 are in serious condition. And some of those leprosy patients are infected HIV/AIDS.

Don Bosco Center, in Nakorn Sri Thammarat is located nearby the leper colony which is most helpful in providing the Leper's children education and Health Care Services.

Phud Hong Leper Foundation has a special alliance with Post Publishing Co., Ltd. and the same management team of Bangkok Post Foundation who fully work for the foundation on voluntary basis and without any remuneration. All administrative cost and other expenses are absorbed by the company. As a result, all the donation fully go to charitable activities of the Foundation.

Furthermore, donations from Thai Tax payers are eligible for income tax deduction. The foundation registered number is 2289.

Background:
Phud Hong Lepers colony was established by government in 1956 with funding 5 Baht a day for food allowance. In January 1974, there were 255 lepers living in the colony and the government had cut the allowance, since then, there was no government funding for food.

Bangkok Post has publicized the Phud Hong Lepers colony story which brought contribution from its readers leading to establishment of Phud Hong Lepers Fund. On August 27, 1974, Queen Rambhai
Barni become patron. The fund was registered as foundation under the patronage of Queen Rambhai Barni in 1982.

Description of Activities and Programs:

The major activities of Phud Hong Leper Foundation is to providing safe shelter and environment to leprosy patients without any discrimination with training them to be independent and not to be any burden of society as well as giving education opportunities to their children with support them on health care and nutrition.

Review Process:

Our Giving Back Assoc. team has visited Phud Hong Leper Foundation office in Bangkok which is the same office of Bangkok Post Foundation and review the charitable activities with Khun Pichai Chuensuksawasdi Chairman and Khun Kusuma Bekenn, who also assumed Fund raising Manager of Phud Hong Leper Foundation, The valuable time sacrificed to the foundation's charitable activities is absolutely based on voluntary basis. They do not received any remuneration from the foundation.

Futhermore, all administrative cost of the foundation will be taken responsibility by the Post Publishing PLC., its host who initially established the foundation.

Khun Kusuma Bekenn, Fund raising Manager, will take a major role in create awareness of leprosy patients among societies including raising assistance from donors to the lepers in the colony such as asking for in-kind contribution etc. She also occasionally visits to the Leper Colony on her own expenses.

Consequently, the administrative expenses of the foundation is minimized to zero resulting all donation will be fully go to charitable activities for the leprosy patients in the colony of the foundation.

Also, the charitable giving educational opportunities of Don Bosco Center to the leprosy patients' children in the colony with the foundation's support in providing needy occupational training, health care and teach them to be independent and not to be any burden to the surrounded communities making those leper's children have obtained basic and standard education in the area.

Primary Supporting Organisations:

Post Publishing Co., Ltd.

Transparency and reporting

Phud Hong Leper Foundation prepare annual financial report regularly. For 2012 its Financial Report of the foundation was audited by Mr. Sira Lohasuraratana CPA registered number 5766 which income statement has presented in this review.

Values and Transparency:

In our opinion, the Phud Hong Leper Foundation is a good example to other charities in terms of management, efficiency, communication with stakeholders and transparency.
